

SUCCESS FOR ALL GOES TO THE WHITE HOUSE!

On October 17, 2016, Success for All was one of thirty proven elementary, secondary, and adult learning programs invited to a What Works Showcase at the White House

ONE OF ONLY 30 PROGRAMS CHOSEN TO ATTEND AND NAMED “PREMIERE PROGRAM WITH RIGOROUS EVIDENCE”

On October 17, 2016, Success for All was one of thirty proven elementary, secondary, and adult learning programs invited to a What Works Showcase at the White House. The event was a part of President Barack Obama’s “My Brother’s Keeper” initiative. Cofounders Drs. Nancy Madden and Robert Slavin attended the event along with SFAF coach Alex Rodriguez, and school leaders from Patrick Henry Elementary School in Alexandria, Virginia: Ingrid Bynum, principal, Andaiye Cammon, vice principal, and Linda Ricks, SFA facilitator. Fifth-grade students Isaiah Robinson and William Gomez joined as well.

Principal Ingrid Bynum shared her school’s incredible gains on the Virginia Standards of Learning Test, while Isaiah and William explained how SFA had helped them each to become super readers. We are proud that Success for All has been recognized as a program that can help boys and young men of color reach their academic potential.
