Introduction

As an endorsing partner of the College and Career Readiness Standards Initiative, the Success for All Foundation wishes to provide comprehensive documentation of how our Reading Between the Lions: Reading Roots 5th Edition curriculum aligns to the reading standards. The College and Career Readiness Standards outline core conceptual understandings that are necessary for success in real-world settings such as college and careers.

Much like Reading Between the Lions: Reading Roots 5th Edition, the standards are researched and evidence based. In addition, the standards are aligned with college and work expectations, they are rigorous, and they are internationally benchmarked. Each standard was meticulously chosen as it relates to college and career readiness. The standards also emphasize, as does the Reading Roots curriculum, the importance of both literary and nonfiction texts in an English Language Arts curriculum.

The standards for reading provide ten anchor standards based on key ideas and details (1–3), craft and structure (4–6), integration of knowledge and ideas (7–9), and range of reading and level of text complexity (10) that are the same across two concentrations: literature and informational text. The objectives that support the anchor standards in each of these two sections differ. The standards for the foundational skills of reading provide two standards for grades 2–5 based on phonics and word recognition (3) and fluency (4).

The standards for writing provide ten anchor standards based on text types and purposes (1–3), production and distribution of writing (4–6), research to build and present knowledge (7–9), and range of writing (10).

The standards for speaking and listening provide six anchor standards based on comprehension and collaboration (1–3) and presentation of knowledge and ideas (4–6).

The standards for language provide six anchor standards based on conventions of standard English (1 and 2), knowledge of language (3), and vocabulary acquisition and use (4–6).

The standards call for students to continually improve upon the skills they have already learned and to use those skills in more complex activities. They call for students to be critical readers of all materials, to engage with the stories and texts, apply their background knowledge, and utilize what they read to build their understanding of not only the texts, but also the world they live in. This alignment shows that SFAF's Reading Between the Lions: Reading Roots 5th Edition program aligns with these goals and the standards as outlined by the College and Career Readiness Standards Initiative.

Anchor Standards for Reading

Grade 1
Key Ideas and Details
Anchor Standard 1: Read closely to determine what the text says explicitly and to make logical inferences from it; cite specific textual evidence when writing or speaking to support conclusions drawn from the text.
The Reading Between the Lions: Reading Roots 5th Edition curriculum focuses on student comprehension of a variety of texts, from basic information and details to using the information gathered and background knowledge to draw conclusions from and formulate opinions on the text. Specific parts of daily lesson plans that call for students to process information for complete comprehension include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Shared Stories—Students read complex, engaging, and interesting stories even when they know only a few letter sounds.</li> <li>• STaR stories—Students engage in a read-aloud experience designed to expand oral language and vocabulary and to develop listening-comprehension skills.</li> <li>• Adventures in Writing—Students extend their comprehension by responding creatively in writing to a prompt that relates to the theme or topic of the Shared Story and/or STaR story.</li> </ul>
Anchor Standard 2: Determine central ideas or themes of a text and analyze their development; summarize the key supporting details and ideas.
Students utilize graphic organizers throughout Reading Between the Lions: Reading Roots 5th Edition to determine and organize ideas within a text. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• In narrative lessons, students use a story star (levels 1 and 2) or a story map (levels 3 and 4) to identify the story elements.</li> <li>• In expository lessons, students use an idea tree to identify main idea and supporting details.</li> </ul>
Anchor Standard 3: Analyze how and why individuals, events, and ideas develop and interact over the course of a text.
The Reading Between the Lions: Reading Roots 5th Edition curriculum teaches students to make connections over the course of the text to improve their comprehension. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Shared Stories—Teacher text is provided for these stories (read over four days in levels 1–3 and five days in level 4) to present a context for the story. These books include predictive questions for students that allow them to make connections to improve their comprehension.</li> <li>• STaR stories—Lessons (over two days) for these stories guide students in previewing the book, expanding background knowledge, and making predictions. The teacher reads each story aloud to students, engaging them in discussion about what is happening in the story.</li> </ul>
Craft and Structure
Anchor Standard 4: Interpret words and phrases as they are used in a text, including determining technical, connotative, and figurative meanings, and analyze how specific word choices shape meaning or tone.
The Reading Between the Lions: Reading Roots 5th Edition curriculum expands students' vocabulary through stories they will read themselves and interactive read alouds. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Shared Stories—Students learn the meanings of Green (easily decodable) and Red (sight) Words that they will encounter in these stories during the Word Presentation segment of each lesson.</li> <li>• STaR stories—Vocabulary words that students will hear in the STaR story are also introduced. The story is then read aloud to students, with the teacher engaging them in discussion about what is happening in the story and how the vocabulary words are used throughout. Students celebrate the new words they have learned by creating oral and written sentences with the vocabulary words.</li> </ul>
Anchor Standard 5: Analyze the structure of texts, including how specific sentences, paragraphs, and larger portions of the text (e.g., a section, chapter, scene, or stanza) relate to each other and the whole.
The Reading Between the Lions: Reading Roots 5th Edition curriculum teaches students to analyze story structure in each lesson as part of the STaR story review. On day 2 of each narrative lesson, students use the story star (levels 1 and 2) or story map (levels 3 and 4) to identify the story elements and to make connections within each story. In expository lessons, students use an idea tree to identify the main idea and supporting details in the text.

Anchor Standard 6: Assess how point of view or purpose shapes the content and style of a text.
The Reading Between the Lions: Reading Roots 5th Edition curriculum teaches point of view or purpose through interactive reading of STaR stories.
Integration of Knowledge and Ideas
Anchor Standard 7: Integrate and evaluate content presented in diverse media and formats, including visually and quantitatively, as well as in words. <sup>1</sup>
Reading Between the Lions: Reading Roots 5th Edition lessons encourage students to utilize all aspects of a story or text, in addition to supporting media, to aid in comprehension. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• In narrative lessons, the teacher models and students learn how to evaluate illustrations to aid in their comprehension of a story.</li> <li>• In expository lessons, the teacher models and students learn to include analysis of text features in their comprehension of the text.</li> <li>• Content from the award-winning PBS television program Between the Lions is used to introduce and reinforce letter sounds, sound blending, chunking, and word-meaning strategies.</li> <li>• Word Plays videos are lively skits that introduce the key vocabulary and story theme for each of the Shared Stories. Word Plays are essential for English language learners, but English-proficient students love them (and learn from them) as well.</li> </ul>
Anchor Standard 8: Delineate and evaluate the argument and specific claims in a text, including the validity of the reasoning as well as the relevance and sufficiency of the evidence.
The Reading Between the Lions: Reading Roots 5th Edition curriculum engages students in discussion about information provided in texts. During discussion and interactive reading, students can evaluate information based on the author's reason for including it in the text.
Anchor Standard 9: Analyze how two or more texts address similar themes or topics in order to build knowledge or to compare the approaches the authors take.
Specific lessons in the Reading Between the Lions: Reading Roots 5th Edition curriculum ask students to compare texts in one of several ways: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Narrative to narrative: for example, compare plots or outcomes across two stories.</li> <li>• Expository to expository: for example, compare the texts' structures or two texts by the same author.</li> <li>• Narrative to expository: for example, how does understanding an expository topic help the reader understand the plot of a story?</li> </ul>
Range of Reading and Level of Text Complexity
Anchor Standard 10: Read and comprehend complex literary and informational texts independently and proficiently.
The Reading Between the Lions: Reading Roots 5th Edition curriculum is based on a progression of reading skills delivered through phonics instruction, Shared Stories, and STaR stories. Students learn to decode using phonics skills, read phonetically regular stories with partners, and understand story structure and vocabulary, all of which helps them to become independent readers.

Section IV: Reading: Foundational Skills

Grade 1

Print Concepts

RF.1.1. Demonstrate understanding of the organization and basic features of print.

RF.1.1.A. Recognize the distinguishing features of a sentence (e.g., first word, capitalization, ending punctuation).

- Reading Between the Lions: Reading Roots 5th Edition teaches students to recognize the features of a sentence in all Shared Stories.
- Students apply this skill to their writing during Adventures in Writing.

Phonological Awareness

RF.1.2. Demonstrate understanding of spoken words, syllables, and sounds (phonemes).

RF.1.2.A. Distinguish long from short vowel sounds in spoken single-syllable words.

RF.1.2.B. Orally produce single-syllable words by blending sounds (phonemes), including consonant blends.

RF.1.2.C. Isolate and pronounce initial, medial vowel, and final sounds (phonemes) in spoken single-syllable words.

RF.1.2.D. Segment spoken single-syllable words into their complete sequence of individual sounds (phonemes).

- Reading Between the Lions: Reading Roots 5th Edition teaches students phonological awareness through fun, fast-paced systematic FastTrack Phonics lessons. In early lessons, a single-letter grapheme or consonant combination (“ch,” “sh,” “th,” and “ng”) is introduced each day. Once a grapheme (letter or letter group) is introduced, it is revisited extensively in future lessons as part of daily teacher instruction and student practice.
  - The Stretch and Read and Say-It-Fast strategies of FastTrack Phonics engage students in blending and segmenting practice.
  - Beginning in lesson 13, a series of vowel digraphs are taught. Because these graphemes are more difficult for young students to remember, the letter groups are introduced over a period of two lessons.
- Phonemic awareness is reinforced during Practice with Cleo and Theo lessons. During Practice with Cleo and Theo, students work with partners to play game-like activities that practice hearing and saying sounds, blending, and segmenting. Practice with Cleo and Theo activities include:
  - Power Reader: Students hear fluent reading modeled, and then practice fluent reading individually.
  - Letter Launch: Students practice saying letter or letter combination sounds and are provided with clues for help.
  - Word Blender: Students practice word blending and are provided with clues for help.
  - Super Speller: Students practice spelling words that they hear and are provided with clues for help.
  - Word Quest: Students practice the vocabulary associated with the story they’re working on.
  - Story Quest: Students read the story and answer comprehension questions.

Phonics and Word Recognition

RF.1.3. Know and apply grade-level phonics and word analysis skills in decoding words.

RF.1.3.A. Know the spelling-sound correspondences for common consonant digraphs.

RF.1.3.B. Decode regularly spelled one-syllable words.

RF.1.3.C. Know final -e and common vowel team conventions for representing long vowel sounds.

RF.1.3.D. Use knowledge that every syllable must have a vowel sound to determine the number of syllables in a printed word.

RF.1.3.E. Decode two-syllable words following basic patterns by breaking the words into syllables.

RF.1.3.F. Read words with inflectional endings.

RF.1.3.G. Recognize and read grade-appropriate irregularly spelled words.

- In Reading Between the Lions: Reading Roots 5th Edition, the FastTrack Phonics lessons and Practice with Cleo and Theo activities engage students in daily activities that address each of these phonics and word-analysis skills.
- Students use decoding skills to read the phonetically regular Shared Stories.
- Shared Stories teach students to read grade-appropriate irregularly spelled words.

Fluency

RF.1.4. Read with sufficient accuracy and fluency to support comprehension.

RF.1.4.A. Read grade-level text with purpose and understanding.

RF.1.4.B. Read grade-level text orally with accuracy, appropriate rate, and expression on successive readings.

RF.1.4.C. Use context to confirm or self-correct word recognition and understanding, rereading as necessary.

- Students learn to read fluently one step at a time within the Shared Story Reading Olympics lessons. In the beginning, students focus on accuracy of reading. As accuracy increases, the focus shifts toward reading smoothly, with attention to periods, commas, and other punctuation. Reading with rich expression, like a storyteller, becomes the next goal. Finally, reading rate is tracked, and increases are celebrated, with continuing attention to the quality of the reading. By the end of the first grade, it is expected that students will be reading at a rate of sixty words correct per minute.
- Students practice fluent reading during the Practice with Cleo and Theo activity Power Reader.
  - If there are not enough devices for Practice with Cleo and Theo, PowerUp Partner Reading provides time for partner reading.
- The teacher models fluent reading of the STaR stories throughout the lessons.

Section V: College and Career Readiness
Anchor Standards for Writing

Grade 1
Text Types and Purposes
Anchor Standard 1: Write arguments to support claims in an analysis of substantive topics or texts, using valid reasoning and relevant and sufficient evidence.
Each day, students write during either the STaR (Story Telling and Retelling) Writing or the Adventures in Writing components of each lesson in all four levels of the Reading Between the Lions: Reading Roots 5th Edition curriculum. During STaR Writing, students create sentences using vocabulary words from the STaR story and share their favorite parts of each story. Adventures in Writing lessons are structured so students can start to write from the beginning of the program. The lessons increase in complexity so students progress from writing short, simple words and phrases to thinking about, planning, and polishing their writing. Prompts for each Reading Between the Lions: Reading Roots 5th Edition Adventures in Writing lesson provide students with a focus for their writing across a broad range of topics and purposes. Students' writing frequently addresses opinions for which they must provide reasoning and evidence in their writing.
Anchor Standard 2: Write informative/explanatory texts to examine and convey complex ideas and information clearly and accurately through the effective selection, organization, and analysis of content.
The Adventures in Writing prompts regularly engage students in informative writing. This type of writing relates to an expository text used in the Shared Story or STaR components of the Reading Between the Lions: Reading Roots 5th Edition lessons.
Anchor Standard 3: Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, well-chosen details, and well-structured event sequences.
The Adventures in Writing component of Reading Between the Lions: Reading Roots 5th Edition offers a wide variety of topics and purposes for writing that include writing narratives. Over the course of the four levels of Reading Between the Lions: Reading Roots 5th Edition, students learn to go from writing simple narrative sentences to developing a narrative in which they include details and sequential events. Peer editing teaches students to receive constructive criticism that they can then apply to their writing.
Production and Distribution of Writing
Anchor Standard 4: Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.
W.1.4 begins in grade 3
Anchor Standard 5: Develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach.
The Adventures in Writing lessons in Reading Between the Lions: Reading Roots 5th Edition include prewriting, partner planning, writing, self-editing, and peer editing to help students develop their writing skills. As students progress through each level of Reading Between the Lions: Reading Roots 5th Edition, they produce more detailed and more complex writing. Adventures in Writing takes place over two days.
Anchor Standard 6: Use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing and to interact and collaborate with others.
Through coaching, teachers are encouraged to expose students to a variety of ways to publish their writing using technology.

Research to Build and Present Knowledge
Anchor Standard 7: Conduct short as well as more sustained research projects based on focused questions, demonstrating understanding of the subject under investigation.
In the Adventures in Writing component of Reading Between the Lions: Reading Roots 5th Edition, students write in response to prompts that relate to the STaR story and/or Shared Story for the lesson. Students use these stories as references for their writing.
Anchor Standard 8: Gather relevant information from multiple print and digital sources, assess the credibility and accuracy of each source, and integrate the information while avoiding plagiarism.
In Adventures in Writing, students use STaR stories and Shared Stories as references for writing in response to the prompt for the lesson.
Anchor Standard 9: Draw evidence from literary or informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research.
W.1.9 begins in grade 4
Range of Writing
Anchor Standard 10: Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of tasks, purposes, and audiences.
W.1.10 begins in grade 3

Section VI: Writing

Grade 1

Text Types and Purposes

W.1.1. Write opinion pieces in which they introduce the topic or name the book they are writing about, state an opinion, supply a reason for the opinion, and provide some sense of closure.

- Students write opinion pieces in response to prompts during the STaR Writing and Adventures in Writing components. In early lessons, students write words, phrases, or short sentences as they are able. As they progress through levels 2–4, their writing expands to include simple and complex sentences in the form of short paragraphs.

W.1.2. Write informative/explanatory texts in which they name a topic, supply some facts about the topic, and provide some sense of closure.

- Students write expository texts in response to prompts during the STaR Writing and Adventures in Writing components. As students progress from level 1 through level 4 in these components of Reading Between the Lions: Reading Roots 5th Edition, their writing becomes more complex. Through self-editing and peer editing in Adventures in Writing, students learn to write more accurately.

Production and Distribution of Writing

W.1.4. Begins in grade 3

W.1.5. With guidance and support from adults, focus on a topic, respond to questions and suggestions from peers, and add details to strengthen writing as needed.

- Adventures in Writing introduces students to self-editing and peer editing throughout each level of Reading Between the Lions: Reading Roots 5th Edition. At all levels, Adventures in Writing takes place over two days, allowing students work through the following processes:
  - Day 1 of AiW
    - Brainstorm and Build Background with Topic: Teachers introduce the writing prompt and provide modeling and guided practice generating ideas about which to write.
    - Partner Planning: Student partnerships are afforded time to talk and discuss what they might write to address the prompt. Partners are encouraged to help each other come up with more elaborate details in their discussion before they are writing.
    - Writing: Students begin their composition. Teachers circulate and ask students to read what they are writing while it is still under construction as well as encourage the use of the Writing Strategies Bank.
      - Students are also introduced to “Checking” their work. In Level 1 and 2, students check their work for the writing expectations: use a variety of writing strategies, express complete ideas, and use vocabulary from Shared Story and/or the STaR story. These expectations continue throughout all levels. Beginning in Level 3, students are also provided an “Editing Checklist” and guided to check their writing for basic punctuation, capitalization, and spelling.
  - Day 2 of AiW
    - Writing: Students finish writing their composition and may illustrate it if time allows.

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ Writing Celebration: Students share their writing with partners and provide each other feedback on their writing.
